Ray's Patisserie Highlands Australia's Best Pie Gold Winner 2013

Ray's Patisserie celebrates golden pie awards Persistence Produces Perfect Pies

After winning a string of awards in Queensland pie competitions, Ray's Patisserie, from Stockland Highlands Shopping Centre, has proudly brought home to Craigieburn, 3 Australian gold pie winner cups.

The annual Australia's Best Pie Competition is run by the Baking Association of Australia and entrants are judged to a national standard. The event was held on 2-4 of June 2013 at the Royal Exhibition Building Melbourne.

The competition was fierce with a total of 256 pastry chef entrants, with many entrants flying in from interstate to take part in this year's competition. Entrants were judged in 10 categories, Ray's Patisserie winning gold in 3 categories for Vegetarian, beef gourmet and the "Apprentice" gourmet pie. Not to mention another 21 were awarded to the enthusiastic Craigieburn bakery across 5 categories. "Ray's Patisserie showed real dedication to their craft", said Tony Smith, Executive Officer of the Baking Association of Australia. "Their attention to detail illustrates the genuine pride they take with their pie making".

Truc Bui "Matilda", owner and pastry chef, was delighted with the awards. "Our team worked hard to create pies that not only looked good but are exactly what we enjoy to eat. We are very happy to finally win a National award!". Michelle Peckham, Stockland Highlands Shopping Centre Manager, congratulated the team, "Well done to the team at Ray's Patisserie, all your hard work and dedication has paid off".
